Currently, ^ our primary corps, ^ better known as Red Possum, ^ is doing its utmost to engage them. ^ However, ^ a problem's has recently cropped up in Rainbow Valley. ^ Our reconnaissance forces have confirmed ' that the enemy's defense line ' has more anti-air and ground emplacements than we had first anticipated. ^ Unfortunately, ^ it looks like the enemy guessed how we'd begin our counterattack. ^ For the rest of the operation to work, ' we must avoid exhausting all of Red Possum's strength here. ^ However, ^ their advance mustn't be slowed, either. ^ That's why we're going to be inserting you White Dingos into Rainbow Valley by air. ^ Your presence is essential if we are going to stand a fighting chance against these fearless marauders. ^ Your top priority is to neutralize ' those enemy ground and anti-air emplacements. ^ Make sure Red Possum's advance is swift and successful! ^ Due to the mission's timing, ^ a tank battalion headed towards the front will arrive in the battle zone during your mission. ^ We have been waiting for this opportunity for too long now. ^ The future of the Federation is in your hands! ^ You people are the best ones for this job. ^ I expect to see you complete it quickly and decisively!

The "Staircase of the Moon" that Zeon Captain Walter spoke of in his broadcast was a name coined centuries ago by area fishermen in reference to a specific natural phenomenon. It refers to how moonlight 'reflected on the ocean' as seen from the shores of Broome 'forms the natural image of a staircase. This was the code name adopted by the Zeon for the mission' and in fact 'the exact location of their rendezvous point before their escape. ^ With our forces concentrated in the northern, southern, and eastern sections of the continent, our battle lines were stretched too thin and a gap formed in them. The "Staircase of the Moon" that Zeon Captain Walter spoke of in his broadcast was a name coined centuries ago by area fishermen in reference to a specific natural phenomenon. Hi Kevin,

I really dislike game project.....

Anyway here is a file of translation with time code and length. This is same order from two VHS tape labeled as "Gundam Game only time code 1/2" and "Gundam Game only time code 2/2".

I'm trying to create a translation file for lip sync, however it seems like some part are missing from the VHS tape that labeled as "Gundam Game Picture" like I mentioned over the phone. And I have to wait for the reply from Client.(Client also have to ask Japan.....)

Oh, I almost forgot this. The total expense for Voice talent of Fist #13-15 is $4,000 .

If you still can't open the file, please give me a call.

Haruyo Kanesaku.
